LILY LANGTRY WEDS HEIR TO AN ENGLISH KNIGHTHOOD.

WEDDING WAS KEPT A SECRET

HUGO GERALD DE BATHE, 28 YEARS OLD, THE NEW HUSBAND.

Ceremony Took Place in Her Pather's Old Church, Isle of Jersey-Prince of Wales "Thoughtful" and Sends Congratulations.

LONDON, Aug. 15 .- Mrs. Lilly Langtry the actress, was married July 27 at the Island of Jersey to Hugo Gerald de Bathe 28 years old, the eldest son of Sir Henry Percival de Bathe, Bart., a retired general and Crimean veteran. The ceremony was private, the only witness being Mrs. Lang-try's daughter. The Prince of Wales is said to have been in the confidence of the pair and he sent them a telegram of congratulations. The wedding occurred the day "Mr. Jersey's" (Mrs. Langtry) horse Merman won the Goodwood cup.

Yes, it is quite true I am married to keep the crowd back. The doctors worked Mr. De Bathe. The wedding occurred very with him from a little after 11 o'clock, quietly at my old church, St. Saylour's, when he was stricken, until almost 2. Island of Jersey, where my dear old father officiated so often. It was pretty much in the nature of a runaway match, as we kept it to ourselves, hoping it would leak out gradually. I see the papers put me down as 47 years old. Well, a few years either way does not matter; but I am only 32, for the old clerk at St. Saviour's took my age from the church register of births.

"I know nothing of Hugo's estates. Indeed, I have not been there yet. Newspapers, as a rule, don't spare me, and have often criticised me when I did not deserve it. The very idea of newspaper comment makes me nervous. I hope the newspapers will speak nicely of our wedding now that the news has leaked out."

"The Prince of Wales was, as he always is, thoughtful. He remembered us kindly by congratulations. But, I am sorry his name was mentioned, as what he did was done privately and out of pure friendship. "Mr. Frohman is arranging with me for an American tour. I long to go, for I love the people of that country. Of course, my husband will accompany me."

The life history of the "Jersey Lily" is unique among the world's celebrities. Born on the Isle of Jersey, the ingenuous daughsingle among the world's celebritites. Born on the Isle of Jersey, the ingenuous daughter of an obscure clergyman, Lily Le Breton fell in love and married Edward Langtry, who was persuaded to take his bride to London. Her simple manner and inconspicuous beauty attracted little attention until the Frince of Wales asked to have her presented. From that day dates Mrs. Langtry's pyrotechnic career.

Of late much speculation has been rife as to Mrs. Langury's matrimonial designs, which have now culminated in the wealthy young De Bathe.

Delificuous from successes into which she plunged with an abandonment which scandalized two continents, she at last forced a separation from her husband, and became an actress with every requisite for success upon the stage save talent. Her most notorious escapfaed which secured her the temporary disfavor of the Prince of Wales, but conduced to high favor among theatrical devotees, was at a supper in London, when she dropped a plees of ice under the collar of his royal lighness. This little pleasantry caused added sincrest to her career.

Some letters from the men were found secreted under stones and a Spanlard, who had been intrusted with several, presented them to General Lawton. The letters told of the hardships the men were compelled to suffer, and begged that ald be sent them. The men complained that they had been starved, beaten and bound, and, moreover, were in rags. No Cane or Beet Sugar is used in making Grape-Nuts.

The flavor is a very delicate sweet, and the food itself is crisp and delicious.

The Bartlett cure, which is recognized by the medical profession as being the foremost treatment for the liquor habit, has compiled a book which plainly and clearly deals with this much dreaded disease. That drunkenness is a disease is now generally admitted by intelligent people and that it can be cured is equally certain.

The Bartlett cure is based on the best principle of any liquor treatment now in existence and Alcoholism is treated by them much the same as a bad cold is cured by a physician. It does not drug-fortify the system as injection cures do, but goes directly to the seat of the disease, builds up the depleted nerves and restores clearness of the mind to the patient, aids the digestive powers and fully restores to the drinking man all that vigor destroyed by alcohol.

Guthrians have given up their street fair project. Three new railroads, a new hotel and a new opera house is enough glory for one year, they argue.

As there is to be no street fair in Guthrie this year the popularity of the honk-a-tonk is likely to be increased. Guthrie couldn'e live without its honk-a-tonk. El Reno is so puffed up over the fact that it has the only polo team in the terri-tory that it considers itself entitled to two Democratic congressional candidates.

SPRINGFIELD, MO., Aug. 15.—(Special.) Charlie Ricketts, a young man living with his widowed mother in this city, was killed in the yards of the Memphis route here late Tuesday evening. He jumped on the ladder of a moving freight car, and, while leaning out at arm's length, struck his head against the corner of the scale building.
